To the Applicants for the 2017-2018
Amy Lowell Poetry Travelling Scholarship:

I am pleased to announce that Joanna Klink of Williamstown, Massachusetts has been chosen from among 376 applicants for the 2017-2018 Amy Lowell Poetry Travelling Scholarship.

Joanna is the author of "Excerpts from a Secret Prophecy" as well as "Raptus" and "Circadian". Additionally, Joanna collaborated with painter Zachary Horn for "Studies of an Estuary", and also authored "They Are Sleeping" and "Strangeness". Her work has appeared in the Kenyon Review, the Boston Review, the Harvard Review, and most recently in Tin House and the LARB Quarterly Journal. Joanna has received the MacDowell Colony Fellowship, the Ucross Foundation Residency, the Lannan Foundation Writer's Residency and was also the Briggs-Copeland Poet at Harvard University from 2008-2011. These are just a few of her many accomplishments.

Thank you all, most sincerely, for your interest in the Scholarship and your effort in applying, and best wishes in your writing careers.

Very truly yours,

William A. Lowell
Co-Trustee under the Will of Amy Lowell
